

VERMONT MANUFACTURER'S FARMERS MARKET LICENSE

Please read the application requirements and license restrictions below to determine whether a farmer's market license is right for your business.

Application Requirements:

In order to obtain a farmer's market license, you will need to provide the following information with your application:

Application fee of $70.00 to be made payable to Vermont Department of Liquor and Lottery.

A copy of the farmer's market regulations.

A copy of the agreement between the farmer's market and the applicant.

The location and dates of the farmer's market.

License Restrictions:

The manufacturer or rectifier shall pay directly to the commissioner of taxes the sum of 55 cents per gallon for each gallon of vinous beverage manufactured by the manufacturer or rectifier and provided for sale pursuant to the first-class license or the second-class license or the fourth-class license or combination thereof held by the manufacturer or rectifier

Permit the State Treasurer, the Department of Liquor and Lottery, and the Department of Taxes, separately or jointly, upon request to perform an audit of the records of the holder of a license issued under this section.

Be deemed to have consented to jurisdiction of the Department of Liquor and Lottery or any other state agency and the Vermont state courts concerning enforcement of this or other related laws and regulations.

Not have any financial interest either directly or indirectly in a Vermont wholesale dealer or retail dealer, including a first, second or third-class license. Comply with all Department of Liquor and Lottery Laws and Regulations.

Any violation under Title 7, V.S.A. Section 2(15), the Board of Liquor and Lottery may suspend or revoke a license, among all other remedies available to the Board.
