For Immediate Release

Friday, July 31, 2020

MONTPELIER, Vt. - On behalf of the Vermont Department of Liquor and Lottery, Division of Liquor Control, the National Alcohol Beverage Control Association (NABCA), has donated $5,000 each to The Vermont Community Foundation and the “Hug a Farmer” project through the Intervale Center to help in their efforts to aid those who have been adversely affected by the COVID 19 pandemic.

VDLL/DLC has been a member of NABCA since 1938 and the two organizations have collaborated on numerous community efforts in the past.

“The world has experienced unprecedented, negative circumstances due to the loss and hardship caused by the spread of COVID-19,” said Jim Sgueo, NABCA president and CEO. “It is our hope that this contribution will be helpful in easing the burden so many find themselves faced with today.”

“We are grateful to the Vermont Community Foundation and the Hug a Farmer project for providing critical services to our citizens,” said Martin Manahan, Chairman of VDLL. “Each organization plays an important role in our state, and the DLC stands ready to support our community organizations and licensees as they continue to find new and novel ways to help those most in need.”
